Generalized Contact Bundles

Jonas Schnitzer

Università di Salermo

Abstract

Generalized contact bundles are odd dimensional analogues of generalized complex manifolds. They have been introduced recently and very little is known about them. The aim of this talk is to give an introduction to this structures, explain their connection to generalized complex manifolds and finally discuss some examples.